Schedule 2 – Code of Conduct

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN JOCKEY CLUB

BOARD MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

Effective 1st December 2022

Issued in accordance with Clause 12.12 of the Constitution.

BACKGROUND

The South Australian Jockey Club Inc. is an incorporated body pursuant to the Associations Incorporations Act.

The objects of the Club as defined in Clause 3 of the Constitution are:

- The principal object of the Club is the encouragement of thoroughbred racing (Principal Object).
- In support of the Principal Object, the secondary objects of the Club are the promotion and provision of entertainment, sport, amusement, recreation, and social events in order to carry on the Principal Object (Secondary Objects).
- The Club may undertake such other activities, which are not inconsistent with the Principal Object or the Secondary Objects, to directly or indirectly enhance, promote or protect the interests of the Club and or thoroughbred racing.

The Club owns and operates the following venues:

- Morphettville Racecourse and associated catering and entertainment facilities within the Course.
- The Junction, a licensed liquor and gaming facility (ie "poker machine" venue).

The relevant statutory controls imposed on the Club come from:

- Liquor Licensing Act 1997;
- Gaming Machine Act 1992;
- Authorised Betting Operations Act 2000;
- Associations Incorporation Act 1985;
- Mandatory Codes of Practice that cover not only the provisions of gambling products and services but the advertising and promotion of such products and services and
- Australian Rules of Racing.

The key controlling bodies can be identified as:

- Minister for Racing;
- Consumer and Business Services;
- The Liquor and Gambling Commissioner; and
- Racing SA Ltd (RSA).

In relation to the racing operations, the SAJC provides the venue for racing as distinct to having any direct control over racing. All control of racing is via RSA and on a given race day is through the Chief Steward.

The SAJC's relationship with RSA commenced on 1 October 2001, the Governor of South Australia designated RSA to be the controlling racing authority for horse racing in this State pursuant to section 6 of the Authorised Betting Operations Act.

Prior to this there had been a specific government agency controlling thoroughbred racing in the State which included the SAJC and the 24 provincial and country clubs.

RSA was established with the specific charter to represent thoroughbred racing. This is complimented by the two key shareholders (50% each) of RSA being:

- Country Racing South Australia (CRSA); and
- South Australian Jockey Club (SAJC).

RSA is a public company limited by guarantee with a requirement that there be seven directors. By virtue of Clause 25 of the RSA Constitution, two of the seven directors are appointed by CRSA and SAJC.

RSA has six key objectives:

- To lead the industry in a transparent and financially responsible manner;
- To improve the standard of governance and management across the thoroughbred racing industry in South Australia;
- To improve the infrastructure and facilities supporting the industry consistent with industry and community standards;
- To increase the focus on the consumer across the thoroughbred racing industry in South Australia;
- To build a more optimistic, collaborative and financially viable thoroughbred racing industry in South Australia; and
- To improve the public image of the thoroughbred racing industry in South Australia and the promotion of thoroughbred horse racing in South Australia.

1. PURPOSE OF THIS CODE

This code aims to provide guidance to Board Members, to help them carry out their duties and responsibilities effectively. Board Members are bound to act according to this code. A breach of this code will result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Constitution.

2. ROLE OF THE BOARD

The Board of the South Australian Jockey Club ("the Board") is responsible for the overall governance, management and strategic direction of the organisation and for delivering accountable corporate performance in accordance with the organisation's goals and objectives.

Management has responsibility to carry out the policies approved by the Board.

Subject to a member being provided delegated authority by the Board, the Board Acts as "one" and no individual Member is permitted to act singularly in the day-to-day operation or management of the organisation.

3. DUTIES OF THE BOARD

Board Members are subject to a range of duties owed to the SAJC. These are derived from the relevant Acts of Parliament, Common Law and other sources. At the most fundamental level these duties are:

- The fiduciary duty of loyalty which is usually expressed as a duty to act in good faith and in the interests of the body as a whole: and
- The duty to use due care and diligence in fulfilling the functions of office and exercising the powers attached to that office.

The fiduciary duty of loyalty is owed to SAJC itself as a whole. The members duty of loyalty to SAJC as a whole is "fiduciary" that is to say it imposes the highest standard of fidelity, because the Board Member occupies a position of trust to SAJC. The nature of the duty is similar to that of the trustee towards the beneficiaries of a trust.

The principal requirements of this duty of a member are:

- To act bona fide in the best interests of SAJC as a whole;
- To exercise the powers conferred by the Act for the proper purposes of the SAJC and not for any extraneous purpose;
- Seeking to avoid being placed in a position where the Board Member's duty to the SAJC as a whole conflicts or may conflict with personal interest, and if such a possibility arises disclosing the matter and handling it in the interests of the SAJC as a whole; and
- Loyalty to SAJC requires a Board Member to support policy decided by the SAJC, even if the Board Member did not (and perhaps still does not) personally support the policy.

4. SCHEDULING OF MEETINGS AND TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS

All business of the Board of the SAJC is to be transacted at a formal meeting of the Board.

Unless agreed to by a majority of the Board, members are to be given at least 5 working days notice of a formal meeting of the Board.

Notwithstanding the above, the Board may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business by the circulation of papers, by the Chief Executive, among all of its members, and a resolution in writing approved in writing by a majority of the appointed members is taken to be a decision of the SAJC.

Email may be used by the Chief Executive to circulate papers among members and a resolution approved by email is taken to have been approved in writing.

The Board may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business at a meeting at which members (or some members) participate by telephone, closed-circuit television or other means, but only if a member who speaks on a matter at the meeting can be heard by the other members.

5. CONDUCTING OFFICIAL MEETINGS WITH MEMBERS

Club Members may request an official meeting with the Board or a Board Committee where there are reasonable business grounds for the request. Any such request will be directed and coordinated via the CEO's office. Board Members are not permitted to conduct any official business meeting with members or other parties on an individual basis, a minimum of two Board members must attend any meeting at one time and a record of the meeting must be taken and agreed by both parties.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

Board Members have an obligation to maintain the confidentiality of information provided to them. All information that is generated by the Club is the intellectual property of the SAJC and that information includes both written and verbal. A Board Member must not divulge any information to other parties except with the permission of the Board.

Confidential information available to Board Members must be used only in ways which are consistent with the obligations of Board Members to act impartially with integrity and in the public interest. Board Members must not use confidential information for personal gain or to promote private interests or those of connected persons, businesses or other organisations.

There are specific exceptions (required by law) to this principle such as requirements under the Freedom of Information Act or when called upon to give evidence in Court.

Media comment is restricted to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, or an Officer delegated by the Chairman or Chief Executive Officer.

On resignation from the Board, your duty of confidentiality continues indefinitely.

7. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Associations Incorporation Act and the Common Law set high standards for removing “conflicts of interest”.

Conflicts of interest are assessed in terms of the likelihood that Board Members possessing a particular interest could be influenced or might appear to be influenced, in the performance of their duties on any matter. At all times a Board Member must be able to act in the interests of the SAJC as a whole. The interests of associates, affiliates, other racing interest and personal interests of the Board Member or the Board Members family must not be allowed to prevail over those of the SAJC. The pursuit of self-interest or representation of a factional interest above the interests of the SAJC is a breach of a Board Member's fiduciary duties.

Where a conflict or perceived conflict does arise, the Board Member must consider whether to refrain from participating in the debate and/or voting on the matter, whether to arrange that the relevant Board Papers are not sent, or in an extreme case whether to resign from the SAJC. The Chairman or Chief Executive is available to discuss potential conflicts of Interest with Board Members. In any event, full disclosure of conflicts or potential conflicts must be made at the SAJC Board meeting, or prior in writing to the Chief Executive.

8. PECUNIARY INTERESTS

This Code and the associated Common Law obligations require:

1. That if:
 - a) a member of the Board or of a sub-committee of the Board has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered at a meeting of the Board or the committee: and
 - b) the interest appears to raise a “conflict” with the proper performance of the member's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter the Board Member must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his or her knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Board or a sub-committee of the Board.
2. A disclosure by a Board Member at a meeting of the Board or a sub-committee of the Board that the Board Member:
 - a) is a member, or is in the employment, of a specified company or other body; or
 - b) is a partner, or is in the employment, of a specified person, or (c) has some other specified interest relating to a specified company or other body or to a specified person, is sufficient disclosure of the nature of the interest in any matter relating to that company or other body or to that person which may arise after the date of the disclosure and which is required to be disclosed under subsection (1).
3. Particulars of any disclosure made under this section must be recorded by the Board or the committee in a book kept for the purposes and that book must be open at all reasonable hours to inspection by any person on payment of the reasonable fee determined by the Board.
4. After a Board Member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter, the Board Member must not, unless the Board otherwise determines:

- a) be present during any deliberations of the Board or the sub-committee with respect to the matter; or
 - b) take part in any decision of the Board or the sub-committee with respect to the matter.
5. For the purpose of making of a determination by the Board under subsection (4), a Board Member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter to which the disclosure related must not:
 - a) be present during any deliberation of the Board or the committee with respect to the matter; or
 - b) take part in any decision of the Board or the committee with respect to the matter.

9. DUE DILIGENCE

- A Board Member should attend all Board meetings but where attendance at meetings is not possible appropriate steps should be taken to obtain leave of absence.
- A Board Member must acquire knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting Members in the discharge of their duties to the SAJC and be aware of the physical, political and social environment in which it operates.
- In order to be fully effective, a Board Member should insist upon access to all relevant information to be considered by the Board. This information should be made available in sufficient time to allow proper consideration of all relevant issues. In the extreme circumstances where information is not provided, the Board Member should take an appropriate protest about the failure on the part of the SAJC to provide the information and if necessary abstain from voting on the particular matter on the basis that there has not been the time necessary to consider the matter properly. Any abstention, and the reasons for it, should be included in the minutes. It may also be appropriate to vote against the motion or move for deferment until proper information is available.
- A Board Member is entitled to seek independent professional advice at the Company's expense on any matter connected with the discharge of his or her responsibilities, in accordance with the SAJC policy and subject to the conditions outlined in the policy.
- A Board Member should endeavour to ensure that systems are established within the SAJC to provide the Board, on a regular and timely basis, with necessary information to enable the Board Members to make a reasoned judgment and so discharge their duties of care and diligence. An internal audit of systems supporting the Board should be conducted regularly.

10. GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

In their dealings with other individuals and entities in the industry, Board Members must always act to foster the SAJC's reputation for independence, impartiality, and scrupulous adherence to ethical standards.

Board Members must not solicit or accept gifts, rewards or benefits in connection with the performance of their duties, or which might compromise or be seen to compromise their independence and objectivity, or which might give rise to a real or apparent conflict of interest.

Board Members may accept minor hospitality offered in the course of their duties if:

- The total value is nominal.
- The offer is in accord with normal social practice.
- The level of hospitality is not more than the Board would provide in similar circumstances.

Board Members must never accept, under any circumstances, an offer of money.

If a Board Member receives an offer of a potentially unacceptable benefit, the Board Member must report it to the Chairman or Chief Executive who shall consider whether the acceptance of the gift contravenes this policy.

As a private individual, a Board Member may accept a benefit if it is offered equally to and accepted by, the public or the industry in general.

In conjunction with this requirement, the Chief Executive Officer will establish and maintain a gift register similar to the one used for staff of the SAJC.

11. WAGERING

Board Members of the SAJC are to only place bets in their own name in the following manner:

- Cash bets with totalizators (either on-course or off-course);
- Cash bets with on-course or on line bookmakers; or
- Betting accounts registered with the SAJC.

Board Members are precluded by law from operating or betting on gaming machines situated at the "Junction" at Morphetville.

12. IMPROPER OR UNDUE INFLUENCE

Board Members must take care not to use their position on the Board to influence any other members or staff at the SAJC in the performance of their duties or functions for the purpose of obtaining any advantage for themselves or any other person, whether the advantage is direct or indirect.

General discussion between Board members and staff is encouraged however specific work requests or requests for information should primarily be channeled via the Chair and CEO.

13. MAINTENANCE AND PROMOTION OF PUBLIC CONFIDENCE

Board Members must not engage in conduct likely to bring discredit upon the SAJC or otherwise diminish the confidence in the SAJC of the public or of participants in the racing Industry.

Board Members must report to the Chairman, any actions by others which may adversely affect, either directly or indirectly, the public confidence in the integrity of the SAJC.

14. STANDARDS OF CONDUCTS

In addition to the above general standard, Board Members are required to conduct themselves in a manner that is required by the relevant legislation governing the conduct of employers - in particular under the Equal Opportunity Act relating to sexual harassment and the Work Health and Safety Act in relation to bullying and harassment.

In particular, Board Members are not to engage in conduct that offends, humiliates or intimidates a person due to their sex, pregnancy, race, marital status or any disability.

Both the Commonwealth and State have legislation that make it unlawful for a person to subject a person to sexual harassment and this applies to a member of a governing body of an association.

Sexual harassment is defined as the making an unwelcome sexual advance or an unwelcome request for sexual favours or engaging in unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to a person. Such offensive conduct includes:

- Uninvited touching, uninvited kisses or embraces;
- Smutty jokes or comments;
- Repeated invitations to go out after prior refusal;
- “Flashing” or sexual gestures;
- Staring or leering at a person;
- Sexually explicit conversation; and
- Offensive phone calls, letters, SMS or e-mails messages or other computer-generated communications.

Such conduct will be the subject of an investigation by the Club pursuant to By-Law 8.4 and apply the provisions of By-Law 6.5 in relation to the disciplining of the Board Member.

Board Members must also understand that any offense could result in a financial liability to the Club unless it could show that all reasonable steps were taken to prevent the harassment from occurring and as such the Club may seek recovery of any award of damages from the offending member.

Additionally the Board will encourage staff and club members to abide by the operation of the Whistleblowers Protection Act as it applies to the SAJC in relation to:

- Corrupt or Illegal Practices; and
- Risks to Public Health, Safety and the Environment.

The SAJC acknowledges the obligations under section 7 and 9 of the Whistleblowers Act as it relates to obligation to not disclose of the identity of any informant and not to engage in any conduct that could be considered to be victimization of a person who makes a disclosure of public interest information.

15. DISSENT

Board Members should recognise that their responsibilities to their colleagues and the SAJC as a whole require that where disagreement occurs every effort be made to resolve the issue and avoid dissension.

Nevertheless there may be times when a Board Member feels so strongly about a matter of principle that the Board Member must lodge a formal dissent.

In such cases the Board Member should consider taking some or all of the following steps:

- Make the extent of the dissent and its possible consequences clear to the Board as a means of seeking to influence the decision;
- Request that the Board seek additional legal, accounting or other professional advice, as is considered necessary;
- Request that the decision be postponed to the next meeting to allow time for further consideration and informed discussion;
- Table a statement of dissent and ask that it be minuted; and
- Write to the Chairman, or all Board Members of the SAJC and/or asking that the letter be filed with the Minutes.

The above process would also apply to allegations or complaints of bias in which case the allegation or complaint should be formally lodged with the Board's designated delegate for such matters.

16. ENFORCEMENT OF THE CODE

Breaches of the Code may be the subject of specifically the operation of clause 8.4 of the Constitution and also any other statutory provision that applies to Board Members.

17. INDEMNITY

Board Members will be indemnified against all liabilities that arise out of his or her lawful dealings for the SAJC and providing that the Board Member is acting reasonably in accordance with the rules of law, this Code of Conduct and, where applicable, as covered by the SAJC's policies of insurance.

However, where a Board Member acts in a manner that is regarded as reckless or willful so as to attract a liability to the SAJC, then the Board shall reserve the right to provide any funds to the Board Member in the defense of any legal action issued against that member.

The Board shall also reserve the right to seek redress against any Board Member who incurs a liability outside the scope of the above indemnity.

18. SUMMARY

- At all times act ethically, with honesty and integrity, in the best interests of the SAJC;
- At all times exercise due care in the performance of their duties;
- Be diligent, attend Board Meetings and make themselves knowledgeable about the Rules and legal requirements, the operations of the SAJC, and the industry and general social environment in which it operates;
